STUDENT: I understand that:

- Summer School is an optional education alternative that I have voluntarily selected.
- I have not waived any rights as a student, and I am entitled to all Elk Grove Unified School District services and resources. If I'm a student with an individualized education program (IEP), the appropriate modifications and accommodations will be provided through district support.
- Once the course has been created for me, the class will not be "dropped" from my schedule and the grade earned will be recorded on my transcript.

I agree to:

- Be supervised by a Valley High School staff member and/or other approved resource personnel.
- A student receiving two discipline referrals or a suspension will be immediately dropped. There will be no credit given for dropped students. Students dropped for behavior may not continue to attend class.

- Attend Summer School daily from 8:00-11:35 or 12:10 – 3:45 or as directed. Failure to attend will result in the following consequences pursuant to board policy (AR 6146- Graduation Requirements/Standards for Proficiency) THERE ARE NO EXCUSED ABSENCES IN SUMMER SCHOOL.*
  - After three days of absence, you will be dropped and receive no credit for any course in progress.
  - After four times being late, you will be dropped and receive no credit for any course in progress. More than 30 minutes late is considered an absence.
- Obtain transportation to school. I understand that lack of transportation to the school site is not an acceptable reason for failing to attend class.
- I understand that credit, which is based on mastery of learning, can only be issued after I have successfully completed an activity and it has been evaluated.
- I am liable for the cost of replacement or repair for damaged or lost books and other materials that are checked out to me.

PARENT: I understand that:

  - I am liable for the cost of replacement or repair for damaged or lost books and other materials that are checked out to my son/daughter.
  - Unless otherwise indicated, a teacher or supervisor will meet with my son/daughter every day and measure progress.
